

STATES ALLOWING FOREIGN VETERINARY GRADUATES ENTRANCE TO THE NORTH AMERICAN VETERINARY LICENSING EXAMINATION (NAVLE)
PRIOR TO COMPLETION OF ECFVG CERTIFICATION

Each state veterinary licensing/regulatory board may set its own requirements for approving candidates to sit for examination. According to our latest information (May 2006), the states listed below will accept NAVLE applications from ECFVG candidates who are final year students at, or graduates of, nonaccredited colleges of veterinary medicine. All such individuals must complete Step 2 (English language requirements) of the ECFVG program before being approved to take the NAVLE. Further information regarding NAVLE requirements may be obtained from state veterinary regulatory boards and the NAVLE vendor/administrator, the National Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners (NBVME; www.nbvme.org).

Candidates enrolled in the ECFVG program should contact the regulatory board in the state in which they wish to apply to take the NAVLE to verify that they meet all requirements prior to submitting an application. Contact information for state boards not listed below is available from the American Association of Veterinary State Boards (AAVSB) at www.aavsb.org. For state board preferences related to the NAVLE application process, please also see the NBVME Web site at www.nbvme.org/?id=5&page=NAVLE+Application+Preferences.

Effective with the 2005-2006 NAVLE cycle, the NBVME office has assumed responsibility for approving candidates and reporting scores for the Virginia, Florida, Michigan, New Jersey, New York, and Pennsylvania state boards. Application forms specific for each of these states are available on the NBVME web site at <http://nbvme.org/?id=7&page=FL%2C+MI%2C+NJ%2C+NY%2C+PA%2C+and+VA+NAVLE+Candidates>. The NBVME will charge a $50 application fee for candidates seeking approval to take the NAVLE through these states.

The NAVLE will be offered during a four-week window in November-December 2006 (November 13-December 9, 2006) and a two-week window in April 2007 (April 9-21, 2007).

In July 2006, the NBVME informed the ECFVG that ECFVG candidates would be allowed to continue to take the NAVLE as Step 3 of the ECFVG program only through the 2006-2007 testing cycle (November-December 2006 and April 2007 administrations). As such, after the April 2007 NAVLE administration, the ECFVG will begin using a new examination for Step 3 of the certification program. The NAVLE will continue to be required for licensure after the April 2007 administration and ECFVG certificate holders who did not complete the NAVLE as Step 3 of the program during or before the April 2007 NAVLE administration will need to successfully complete the NAVLE and any state examinations for state licensure. For NAVLE eligibility requirements for foreign veterinary graduates after April 2007 please refer to the NBVME Web site (www.nbvme.org). For examination requirements for state licensure, please contact the specific state regulatory board.

An applicant who has taken the NAVLE or, previously, the NBE and CCT, must request that his/her scores be reported to the ECFVG by contacting the AAVSB Veterinary Information Verifying Agency (VIVA), 4106 Central St, Kansas City, MO 64111; 877-698-8482; www.aavsb.org. VIVA does not automatically report scores to the ECFVG.

Please note that the NBVME has set a NAVLE application deadline date: 92 days prior to the opening of the test window. This translates to August 14 for the fall 2006 testing window. State regulatory boards may have a different application deadline, but the NAVLE application deadline for all candidates is 92 days prior to the opening of the test window.

The NAVLE fee is set by the NBVME. The NAVLE fee for the 2006-2007 testing cycle is $465. State regulatory boards may have an additional application or board examination fee.

Because the method of payment and the application deadline may vary from one state regulatory board to another, ECFVG candidates are advised to contact the chosen board for the most accurate information on how and when to submit the application and examination fees. You will not be permitted to take the NAVLE unless all fees have been paid.
