Report on Status of Allied Groups Represented in the House of Delegates

As of March 31, 2017 the following allied organizations represented in the AVMA House of Delegates met the requirements of Article VII, Section 4(a) of the AVMA Bylaws for continued representation in the House of Delegates.

The following organizations have 500 or more AVMA members among their U.S. resident voting membership.

- American Animal Hospital Association
- American Association of Bovine Practitioners
- American Association of Equine Practitioners
- American Association of Feline Practitioners
- American Association of Small Ruminant Practitioners
- American Association of Swine Veterinarians
- American Association of Veterinary Clinicians
- Association of Avian Veterinarians
- National Association of Federal Veterinarians
- Society for Theriogenology

The following organizations include in their voting membership more than 300 AVMA members, comprising at least 85% of their U.S. resident voting members.

- American Association of Avian Pathologists

The following organizations include in their voting membership at least 1% of all AVMA voting members comprising at least 85% of their U.S. resident voting members.

- American Holistic Veterinary Medical Association

As of May 9, 2017 the following allied organization represented in the AVMA House of Delegates met the requirements of Article VII, Section 4(a) of the AVMA Bylaws for continued representation in the House of Delegates.

The following organization include in their voting membership at least 1% of all AVMA voting members comprising at least 85% of their U.S. resident voting members.

- American Academy of Veterinary Acupuncturists

The following allied organizations represented in the AVMA House of Delegates have until July 21, 2017 to qualify.

The following organization must have 500 or more AVMA members among their U.S. resident voting membership.

- American Association of Food Safety and Public Health Veterinarians

The following organization must include in their voting membership more than 300 AVMA members, comprising at least 85% of their U.S. resident voting members.

- American Association of Industry Veterinarians