VLC Attendance Benefits the Individual and the Employer!

Attendance at the Veterinary Leadership Conference benefits both the individual and the employer. Need help convincing your stakeholders that you MUST attend? See the below:

✓ Be informed of changes in legislation that can affect the practice of veterinary medicine and policies from the AVMA that can aid veterinarians in their daily work life.
✓ Exchange ideas and attend workshops geared towards increasing productivity in the workplace, including conflict resolution tactics, strategies for self-management, improving teamwork, and much more.
✓ Participate in a plethora of networking opportunities to aid in case management and referrals, expanding opportunities to provide additional services for the workplace, and to advise other attendees of employment opportunities within their workplace.
✓ Obtain high-quality continuing education that can be utilized to fulfill license requirements (*Check with your state for specific continuing education requirements.)
✓ Learn effective communication techniques to communicate more efficiently with clients and coworkers to boost productivity and time management.