

September 15-17, 2013

Full Accreditation is granted to a college that complies with the Standards of Accreditation. Colleges which meet all the Standards are granted Full Accreditation for a period of no more than seven years contingent upon satisfactory review by the Council of each annual report. A college which is in compliance with all but one or two Standards and the Council is satisfied that student outcomes are minimally affected is assigned full accreditation with substantial compliance for those Standards and more frequent reporting may be required.

University of Georgia College of Veterinary Medicine, Athens, Georgia
Granted Full Accreditation status for a period not to exceed seven (7) years.

University of Illinois College of Veterinary Medicine, Urbana, Illinois
Granted Full Accreditation status for a period not to exceed seven (7) years.

University of Glasgow School of Veterinary Medicine, Glasgow, Scotland
Granted Full Accreditation status for a period not to exceed seven (7) years.

University of Missouri College of Veterinary Medicine, Columbia, Missouri
Granted Full Accreditation status for a period not to exceed seven (7) years.

---

July 2, 2013

Reasonable Assurance is granted to an institution seeking initial accreditation. Reasonable Assurance is not a pre-accreditation action by the Council and does not confer accreditation of any kind on a developing college. A letter may be granted to an educational institution indicating that there is reasonable assurance of future accreditation of a developing college of veterinary medicine in the US or Canada, if such a college is established according to plans presented to the Council, and if these plans demonstrate intent and a realistic plan to comply with the Standards of Accreditation. A college granted Reasonable Assurance must offer admission to and matriculate its first class of students within three years. Colleges with a Letter of Reasonable Assurance must submit reports every six months to monitor the program's progress in complying with the Standards.

Lincoln Memorial University College of Veterinary and Comparative Medicine, Harrogate, Tennessee granted a Letter of Reasonable Assurance for a period not to exceed three (3) years.

---

May 31, 2013

Full Accreditation is granted to a college that complies with the Standards of Accreditation. Colleges which meet all the Standards are granted Full Accreditation for a period of no more than seven years contingent upon satisfactory review by the Council of each annual report. A college which is in compliance with all but one or two Standards and the Council is satisfied that student outcomes are minimally affected is assigned full accreditation with substantial compliance for those Standards and more frequent reporting may be required.

University of Tennessee College of Veterinary Medicine, Knoxville, Tennessee
Granted Full Accreditation status for a period not to exceed two (2) years.

Reasonable Assurance is granted to an institution seeking initial accreditation. Reasonable Assurance is not a pre-accreditation action by the Council and does not confer accreditation of any kind on a developing college. A letter may be granted to an educational institution indicating that there is reasonable assurance of future accreditation of a developing college of veterinary medicine in the US or Canada, if such a college is established according to plans presented to the Council, and if these plans demonstrate intent and a realistic plan to comply with the Standards of Accreditation. A college granted Reasonable Assurance must offer admission to and matriculate its first class of students within three years. colleges with a Letter of Reasonable Assurance must submit reports every six months to monitor the program's progress in complying with the Standards.

Midwestern University College of Veterinary Medicine, Glendale, Arizona Granted a Letter of Reasonable Assurance for a period not to exceed three (3) years.

---

May 6, 2013

Full Accreditation is granted to a college that complies with the Standards of Accreditation. Colleges which meet all the Standards are granted Full Accreditation for a period of no more than seven years contingent upon satisfactory review by the Council of each annual report. A college which is in compliance with all but one or two Standards and the Council is satisfied that student outcomes are minimally affected is assigned full accreditation with substantial compliance for those Standards and more frequent reporting may be required.

Université of Montréal Faculté de médecine vétérinaire, St. Hyacinthe, Quebec, Canada Granted Full Accreditation status for a period not to exceed seven (7) years.

Western University of Health Sciences College of Veterinary Medicine, Pomona, California Granted Full Accreditation status for a period not to exceed seven (7) years.

---

March 3-6, 2013

Full Accreditation is granted to a college that complies with the Standards of Accreditation. Colleges which meet all the Standards are granted Full Accreditation for a period of no more than seven years contingent upon satisfactory review by the Council of each annual report. A college which is in compliance with all but one or two Standards and the Council is satisfied that student outcomes are minimally affected is assigned full accreditation with substantial compliance for those Standards and more frequent reporting may be required.

University of London, The Royal Veterinary College, Hertfordshire, United Kingdom Granted Full Accreditation status for a period not to exceed seven (7) years.

Louisiana State University School of Veterinary Medicine, Baton Rouge, Louisiana Granted Full Accreditation status for a period not to exceed seven (7) years.