In the aggregate, participants showed an implicit preference for White people over Black people, Non-Hispanic people over Hispanic people, and rich people over poor people.

These results stood in contrast to self-reported preferences for Black people over White people, Hispanic people over Non-Hispanic people, and poor people over rich people.

In other words, we often claim not to be biased when in fact we are.

Inclusion = Lifesaving