

Report on Status of Allied Groups Represented in the House of Delegates

As of March 31, 2010, all of the allied organizations represented in the AVMA House of Delegates meet the requirements of Article VII, Section 4(a) of the AVMA Bylaws for continued representation in the House of Delegates.

The following organizations have 500 or more AVMA members in their voting membership:

- American Animal Hospital Association
- American Association of Bovine Practitioners
- American Association of Equine Practitioners
- American Association of Feline Practitioners
- American Association of Food Hygiene Veterinarians
- American Association of Small Ruminant Practitioners
- American Association of Swine Veterinarians
- American Association of Veterinary Clinicians
- American Society of Laboratory Animal Practitioners
- Association of Avian Veterinarians
- National Association of Federal Veterinarians
- Society of Theriogenology

The following organizations include in their voting membership more than 300 AVMA members, comprising at least 85 percent of their US resident voting members:

- American Association of Avian Pathologists
- American Association of Corporate and Public Practice Veterinarians